Mastering boxing: boxing basics / Rising Sun Productions; produced by Don Warrender; authoring by Angel Lemus; production by MPD Productions.

This DVD from Olympic Gold Medalist and former WBO champion Ray Mercer is one of the most complete ever offered on the basics of boxing - from the classic left jab, right cross, upper cut, hook and, of course, the Bolo punch. Ray tells very cool stories all the way through as he relates each technique to his many personal experiences. Ray's examples demonstrate that these skills have been, most definitely, 'road tested'. --Publisher info.

Shoah [videorecording] / a film by Claude Lanzmann; a co-production of Les Films Aleph, Historia Films, with the participation of Ministry of Culture (France).

Over a decade in the making, this monumental investigation of the unthinkable: the murder of more than six million Jews by the Nazis. Using no archival footage, Claude Lanzmann instead focuses on first-person testimonies (of survivors and former Nazis, and other witnesses), employing a circular, free-associative method in assembling them. The intellectual yet emotionally overwhelming Shoah is not a film about excavating the past but an intensive portrait in which the past is always present.

As you like it [videorecording] / HBO Films presents in association with BBC Films, a Shakespeare Film Company production; produced by Kenneth Branagh, Judy Hofflund, Simon Moseley; adapted for the screen and directed by Kenneth Branagh.

Rosalind is the daughter of banished Duke Senior and is being raised at the court of Duke Frederick, with her cousin Celia. She falls in love with a young man named Orlando, but she is banished by Duke Frederick, who threatens death if she comes near the court again. Celia goes with Rosalind. Disguised as the boy Ganymede, Rosalind enters the Forest of Arden. Upon their arrival in the forest, they happen upon Orlando and his manservant, who are fleeing the wrath of Orlando's eldest brother. What follows is an elaborate scheme devised by the cross-dressing Rosalind to find out the verity of Orlando's supposed passion for her, and to further capture his heart, through the witty and mischievous facade of Ganymede.
